

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

LAMONT B. NELSON,

Defendant.

Case No. MJ23-622

DETENTION ORDER

Defendant Lamont B. Nelson is charged with violations of supervised release in the Central District of California. The Court held a detention hearing on January 5, 2024, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1), and based upon the reasons for detention as stated on the record and as hereafter set forth, finds:

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. There is a rebuttable presumption of detention pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1), as incorporated in Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6). The burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that Mr. Nelson will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community rests with Mr. Nelson.
2. Mr. Nelson stipulated to detention.

- 1 3. Mr. Nelson poses a risk of nonappearance based on allegedly absconding from 2 supervision for over ten months.
- 3 4. Mr. Nelson poses a risk of danger based on his criminal history and the nature of 4 the alleged supervision violations.
- 5 5. Based on these findings, and for the reasons stated on the record, there are no
6 conditions or combination of conditions other than detention that will reasonably
7 assure the appearance of Mr. Nelson as required or ensure the safety of the 8 community, pending his initial appearance in the Central District of California.
- 9 6. The record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no condition or 10 combination of conditions other than detention will reasonably assure the 11 appearance of Mr. Nelson as required and the safety of the community.

12 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- 13 (1) Mr. Nelson shall be detained pending initial appearance in the Central District of 14 California and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement
15 in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or 16 serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 17 (2) Mr. Nelson shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 18 counsel;
- 19 (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the 20 government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which Mr. Nelson
21 is confined shall deliver him to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an
22 appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and 23

1 (4) The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to
2 counsel for Mr. Nelson, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States
3 Pretrial Services Officer.

4 Dated this 5th day of January, 2024.
